

WHAT MAY SEEM LIKE AN INCONVENIENCE MAY BE AN OPPORTUNITY!!!

In our minds, we might think there is too much sacrifice, but we cannot draw a line in the sand and say "This is as far as I will go with You God."

MATTERS OF THE HEART

- Jake-wisdom and rest
- Health for the girls
- Finances to come in
- Rachael- having a difficult time adjusting

"It was cool! It was stretching and interesting."

WHAT IS NEXT??

We've been accepted to do the YWAM School of Evangelism (SOE) in Rockford, MN. This school begins June 27th, 2010 and has a similar layout to our DTS. It begins with a 12 week lecture phase and ends with a 7 week outreach phase. Both Jake and I will be doing this secondary school.

"We don't always know where we're going, but we always know who we are following!"

-Jake

We were long overdue for a date night, so we set out to see a movie. We proceeded to get VERY lost but finally found the theater...too late to see the one we wanted to see. We wandered around the theater a bit and decided to get in line to ask about another movie.

While in line, an American came up to us and asked if we spoke English. "Yes!" we told him. He proceeded to tell us his story. All the while, Jake and I were praying for wisdom and discretion.

We were able to pray with this man, give him a little money, and then we left the theater feeling a great peace. It was one of our best date nights ever!

One thing DTS taught us was how to look at the world as our mission field...in a practical way.

Don't always assume that you are late or standing in a long line forever for no reason. Stay alert. Look for opportunities. God is ALWAYS on the move.

"It was really fun, and the best part was making new friends!"

"I liked getting packages in the mail!"
